

Recommendation letter

I'm teacher of math in high school at EC Physics and Math Lyceums # named after ...

Mr. R is a very talented, intelligent, responsible, broad-minded person. He systematically uses wide range of information sources. He has his own talent in math from childhood. Mr.R can organize activity according to plan he has critical, statistical thinking, math intuition and holistic approach. Moreover, he systematically uses wide range of information sources. His abilities and hard-working is not only in school classes, but he has extra classes in math.

He is very strong at trigonometric inequality, primitive and uncertain integral, curvilinear trapezoid and its area, a certain integral, root n -th degrees from a real number and its property, degree with a rational and irrational indicator, transformation of irrational expressions, the solution of the irrational equations and their systems, the solution of irrational inequalities and their systems, a power function and its properties, a derivative and integral of a power function with the valid indicator, an exponential function, its properties and the schedule, log.

Being his teacher I can vouch that Mr R demonstrated tremendous effort and improvements throughout the years and proved himself as one of the most diligent and conscientious students that I have encountered in my entire teaching career. He has a combination of the strong sense of responsibility and positive attitude that keeps him refine his learning process till he reaches the almost ideal result. As he has a very comprehensive understanding of the subject and has excellent analytical skills.

He is very responsible student and does all his homework on time. The student has demonstrated deep knowledge of the studied material using the integration in various spheres. Mr R always thinks positively. He shows himself as a self-developed and self-realized personality.

To conclude, I would like to restate my strong recommendation for Mr R
